

AN OVERWHELMING MAJORITY FOR BURSUM

New Mexico by not less than 7,000 majority and he may win by as much as 10,000 votes."

This is the overwhelming news that comes by long distance telephone hourly before noon today from the Republican state secretary Herbert Clark, who arrived here last night to vote and who has been in close touch today with the prominent men in all of the counties by long distance telephone and by wire.

Bursum has surprised even those closest to him and closest to the Republican organization. He has made a wonderful race and instead of being weak, he has proved the strength of the Republican ticket. He is going to be elected by a Republican landslide.

The counties in which the so-called progressive element centered their fight in an effort to break down Republican strength, are a fine index to the way the vote is going. Santa Fe county is going to give Bursum 350 majority and Miguel A. Otero is going down to defeat disastrously. Torrance county this morning reports that Van Stone will not carry even his own precinct. Bursum wins there by 350 or 400 majority. Colfax county is going for Bursum by a big majority. The early reports indicate that every man on the Democratic ticket will be soundly beaten before the polls close. The Pecos valley is again proving the backbone of the Democrats. They are not even getting the results there, they hoped for. This is attributed to the personal dislike for Hagerman over there and to factional and local county rows. Bursum is the surprise of the day; he is running like wild fire."

Santa Fe Beats Otero.

By Long Distance Telephone.
Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 7.—Early indications here are that Miguel A. Otero will be soundly beaten together with the Democratic-Progressive ticket. Already any effort to save Otero has been abandoned. The fight now is centered up on one member of the Republican county ticket. He will win out. Santa Fe county will give Bursum 350 majority.

Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 7, 11:30 a.m.—Santa Fe county will give between 350 to 400 majority for Bursum.

Socorro by 1,100 for Bursum.
Socorro, N. M., Nov. 7.—Bursum will carry this county by 1,100 and is more. Republican ticket will be elected. Blue ballot will be overwhelmingly beaten.

Torrence County for Bursum.
By Long Distance Telephone.
Estancia, N. M., Nov. 7.—Torrence county will give Bursum 350 majority or better. Van Stone can not carry his own precinct. Democrats and Progressive allies are fusing among themselves today.

Willard Reports Favorably.
Willard, N. M., Nov. 7.—Torrence county will be for Bursum. Early vote here appears to be about 2 to 1 for him. Blue ballot will be lost in this county. Socialist vote down here cutting into Democrats.

Quay Democrats Are Sure.

Tucumcari, N. M., Nov. 7.—Early vote here is about stand-off. The Democrats show effect of fight in primaries and are worse split than ever. Effort of Democratic leaders to fix things up in this county made matters even worse for them. Estimated by early indications that Democrats will be lucky to get 400 majority in this county.

Otero Is Doubtful.
Alamogordo, N. M., Nov. 7.—McDonald will be lucky to get majority of 50 in this county. Progressive deal still ranks with old line Democrats.

By Phone to the Herald.

Los Lunas, N. M., Nov. 7.—Valencia county is sure to give not less than 1,600 majority for Bursum. The only votes against him are in Belen, according to reports received up to noon, and there the expected "progressive" vote has not appeared. The Democratic vote in Belen will be less than ever.

Dona Ana Republicans at Work.

(Special Telegram to Evening Herald)
Las Cruces, N. M., Nov. 7, 11 a.m.

Dona Ana county will give 450 or better majority for Bursum and the Republican state ticket. The opposition here has failed to get anything like the vote expected, up to this Republican vote and many Democrats are voting for him. The blue ballot will be defeated.

Luna County Gives Republican Gain.

(Special Telegram to Evening Herald)
Deming, N. M., Nov. 7.—Up to this time the voting shows strong Republican gains here. The majority against Bursum will not exceed 50 votes.

Grant Will Go Republican.

(Special Telegram to Evening Herald)
Silver City, N. M., Nov. 7.—This morning's voting has been overwhelming Republican. Same is true in nearby precincts. Bursum is going to carry the county and will take the Republican ticket with him.

Special Dispatch to Evening Herald.

El Rio, N. M., Nov. 7.—At 12 o'clock today Chairman Veneciano Jarandillo of the Republican state committee, asserts that H. O. Bursum and the entire Republican ticket will carry Rio Arriba county by 1,000 majority and that the Republican majority in Taos will be from 900 to 1,000.

"We expected to win in those two counties," said Mr. Jarandillo. "But reports to this hour indicate a Republican landslide. I have heard from all the larger precincts. The vote is solidly Republican. Rumors put out during the campaign, of disaffection among Republicans in these two counties have proved to be false. My reports show that Bursum is leading his ticket. The blue ballot is defeated in both counties by a big majority."

Santa Fe Hears the Good News.

Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 7.—The early vote is heavy. McDonald's long record as a company cattle man and the representative of foreign dukes and things, is telling strongly against him. The small cattlemen and many of the ranchers are openly declaring they are against him and the bulk of the vote will be against him. He is making the fight of his life here but he will lose his home county by 25 or 30 votes. Blue ballot will be lost in this county by 100 votes or better.

M'DONALD WILL LOSE HIS HOME COUNTY.

LABOR UNION VOTE DISAPPOINTS IN FRISCO

San Francisco, Calif., Nov. 7.—Indications at noon today were that the vote in both the San Francisco and Sacramento municipal elections would be unusually heavy, the weather is perfect in both cities and the polling has been especially heavy in the residential districts.

Supporters of the union labor candidates in San Francisco have caused some concern that the vote has been somewhat lighter in the workingmen's neighborhoods than in some of the other districts. Charles M. Fickett, candidate for reelection to the office of district attorney who defeated Francis J. Heney for that office at the last election has claimed the union labor vote.
